OUR IMPACT

Impact.

The singular effect of this word can make a difference in each of our lives.

But, when we harness the collective positive effect of this word, the future of our students and our communities can change in amazing ways.

The 2021 year is testament to that. We as a school community rallied, found our footing and came together in positive ways that continue to unfold today.

And when we work together, the impact we make increases exponentially. The 2021 Seneca Valley Annual Report celebrates the impact we make on each other and, ultimately, the world around us.

In the pages to follow, you will find highlights of our academics, athletics/activities, Seneca Valley Foundation, operations and planning impacts. These highlights; these recaps; these impacts each make a difference on their own; but their sum is greater than their parts. Such positive results are what drive me. And I believe that it is what drives our students, staff and families, as well.

I hope that you enjoy reading through this Annual Report and the many wonderful accomplishments it details. I want to thank all of you for continuing to serve as our partners in education and for being a part in OUR IMPACT on students.

Thank you and enjoy the Seneca Valley Annual Report!

Tracy Vitale

Gifted Education

If a student demonstrates a potential need for gifted services, a multidisciplinary evaluation is conducted to determine if the child is in need of special programming. The evaluation process may be initiated by school staff or by a child's parent, who may do so by contacting the building principal.

The amount and type of gifted support to be received by a student is determined on an individual basis annually by the child's Gifted Individualized Education Program (GIEP) team, of which the parent is a very important member.

CBVT, Vocational Readiness students' staff new No Cost to Shop store

Numerous Seneca Valley staff members and students joined forces to launch the No Cost to Shop store which officially opened Nov. 1, 2021.

This new store, located in the senior high school, is for students in grades 7-12 who are in need of clothing, food or other items, and are welcome to set up a private time to shop and take what they need – no lines, no checkout.

Last year, Michelle Eppinger, a Seneca Valley Senior High School (SHS) special education job coach paraprofessional, went to senior high school administrators with concerns that some students had additional needs that were not being met due to the pandemic. From there, her vision of a “brick and mortar” store, along with many others, came together and turned this vision into a reality.

Ms. Eppinger, along with SV job coaches, teachers, maintenance workers and various students have been hard at work collecting donations, as well as sorting, folding and categorizing various hygiene items. They were buoyed in June when the Seneca Valley Foundation (SVF) donated $3,000 to assist with the store's needs, specifically with store fixtures, furniture, racks and décor.

To expand the store and evolve the program even more, Seneca Valley Transition Planning, Career and Vocational Education Coordinator Jess Pyle involved Community Based Vocational Training (CBVT) and Vocational Readiness students and their job coaches. These students currently run the store by taking inventory, checking donation boxes, doing laundry and -best of all- gaining real work experience.

“It is great to see the collaboration of all students working together toward one common goal, said Ms. Pyle. “The students in Vocational Readiness and CBVT are gaining employability skills that they can transfer into the community, while providing students in need essential daily living items. Overall, many students are benefiting from No Cost to Shop. It is a positive outcome for everyone involved.”

The last detail was ensuring shoppers took part in an authentic retail experience. Students from Jason Woolslare's art classes designed and painted a screen to add artistic flair to the space and SHS teacher Bruce Clark made and donated a bench for students to use when trying on shoes.

Meaningful Impact

2020-21 Seneca Valley Budget

The Board of School Directors unanimously passed the 2020-21 general operating budget for the Seneca Valley School District in June 2020.

The board has and will continue to focus on reducing spending and finding new revenue streams while pursuing cost avoidance efforts. The budget helps, in part, to support ongoing technology, curriculum improvements and updates to our district facilities.

The development and final adoption of the budget is a very detailed and complex process for which the board of school directors is responsible by state law per Section 679 of the Pennsylvania Public School Code of 1949.

The final document is a product that was developed with the cooperation and effort of the board, administration and staff. The process and final budget provides for the best education possible for our students as well as sensitivity to the burden of expense on the local taxpayer.

The Impact of Doing Good

The 2020-21 school year marks the tenth anniversary of the Seneca Valley Foundation (SVF). As we continue to grow and win for the Seneca Valley School District, we thank SV staff, school board, families, community members and businesses for their support of our mission. With the incredible financial support we received this year, the SVF has proudly supported 32 initiatives throughout the district!

The Seneca Valley Foundation (SVF) is a private, 501(c)(3) non-profit corporation dedicated to encouraging excellence and innovation in the Seneca Valley schools. The Foundation achieves this by seeking donations and patrons to facilitate new district, building or classroom projects, programs and/or grants/scholarships. Its board members consist of stakeholders from local business leaders, community leaders and school leaders. As a non-profit organization, the SVF is utilized as a vehicle by which memorial and other charitable donations may be made to the Seneca Valley School District.

Thank you!

Our deepest appreciation goes to the following individuals, companies and agencies that contributed to the Seneca Valley Foundation from July 1, 2020 – June 30, 2021. We are grateful for your unwavering partnership and steadfast support.
